

Business Questions

Objective

The objective of this dashboard is to analyze the bank's loan portfolio, identify default patterns, evaluate credit risk, and provide insights for better lending decisions.

Business Questions

1. What is the overall default rate across all loan applications?
2. Which loan purpose receives the highest average loan amount?
3. Which loan type contributes the largest share of the loan portfolio?
4. Which loan type has the highest default rate?
5. Which age group has the highest probability of default?
6. How does default rate vary across different credit score groups?
7. Which region receives the highest number of loan applications?
8. What is the average interest rate offered for each loan type?
9. Which customer segments represent the highest lending risk?
10. What business actions can reduce future loan defaults while maintaining portfolio growth?¹